The Corn Returns Act, 1882, requires buyers of British corn at certain towns to make returns of particulars about the corn purchased by them. These regulations vary the form of the return so as to distinguish as far as practicable between corn bought from the grower and other corn.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Agriculture (Special Directions) (Delegation to County Agricultural Executive Committees) Regulations, 1948, delegated to those Committees, under section 72 of the Agriculture Act, 1947, the functions of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries relating to the giving of directions to persons occupying or entitled to occupy agricultural land as to the maximum area of land which may be maintained on an agricultural unit under pasture or herbage crops. Those functions of the Minister arose under powers conferred by section 95 (2) (d) of the Act, and were exercisable by virtue of the Agriculture (Special Directions) (Maximum Area of Pasture) Order, 1948, for a period ending with the 31st December, 1950. The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries has, however, exercised the power conferred upon him by section 95 (8) of the Act to extend that period (see the Agriculture (Special Directions) (Maximum Area of Pasture) Extension of Period Orders, 1950 and 1951—S.I. 1950 No. 2031 and S.I. 1951 No. 2262), and accordingly, the present regulations are made to extend the period of delegation of those functions to County Agricultural Executive Committees, which under the earlier Regulations as extended (see the Agriculture (Special Directions) (Delegation to County Agricultural Executive Committees) Regulations, 1950—S.I. 1950 No. 2030) would have expired on 31st December, 1951, so as to continue until 31st December, 1952.
