The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Contributions during service in the Forces) Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 889

Made - - - -	21*st May*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	21*st May*, 1951
Coming into Operation	28*th May*, 1951

M.N.I./I.I. 137.

The Minister of National Insurance, in exercise of powers conferred by subsection (3) of section 3 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Contributions during service in the Forces) Regulations, 1951, and shall come into operation on the 28th May, 1951.

(2) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Act" means the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946;
"insured person" means an insured person under the Act(b);
"contributions" means contributions under the Act;

and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Contributions during naval, military or air force service

2. Where, as respects any insurable employment, no services are rendered by an insured person during any period, and throughout the whole of that period he has been employed in the naval, military or air force service of the Crown, then, as respects that employment, any payments which he receives in respect of any day in that period or which, apart from these regulations, would be deemed to be remuneration paid in respect of any such day(d) shall, for the purposes of those provisions of Part I of the Act which relate to the payment and recovery of contributions, be deemed not to be such remuneration.

Dated this 21st day of May, 1951.

Edith Summerskill,
Minister of National Insurance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Section 3 (2), proviso (b), of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946, provides that, as respects any insurable employment, no contributions shall be payable for weeks in which no services are rendered and no remuneration paid.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 62.
(b) See s. 88 (1), National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946.
(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
(d) See regulation 11, S.I. 1948 (No. 1274) I, p. 3037.

These Regulations provide that, for the purposes of the Act, payments made to a person in respect of insurable employment which continues during a period of service in the Forces shall be deemed not to be remuneration paid in respect of that period.

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Amendment Regulations, 1951

1951 No. 2076

Made - - - -	27*th November*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	29*th November*, 1951
Coming into Operation	10*th December*, 1951

M.N.I./I.I. 141.

The Industrial Injuries Joint Authority, with the consent of the Treasury, in exercise of powers conferred by Part III of the First Schedule to the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(a), and the Minister of National Insurance, in exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (1) of section 80 of that Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Amendment Regulations, 1951, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Regulations, 1948(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations") as amended(c), and shall come into operation on the 10th December, 1951.

Insurable Employments

2. The employments specified in the first column of the First Schedule hereto, being employments which, apart from this regulation, would not be insurable under the Act and which are such that it appears to the Minister that—

(a) the nature and other circumstances of the service rendered and the work performed therein and in employment which is insurable under the Act are so similar as to result in anomalies in the operation of the Act; and

(b) the employments so specified can conveniently be included among the insurable employments;

shall be included among the insurable employments, and accordingly Part I of the Second Schedule to the principal regulations shall be amended by the addition, at the end of the first and second columns thereof, respectively, of the entries specified in the first and second columns of the First Schedule hereto.

Persons to be treated as employers

3. The Third Schedule to the principal regulations (which Schedule relates to employments in respect of which persons are treated as employers) shall be amended by the addition, at the end of the first and second columns

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 62. (b) S.I. 1948 (No. 1456) I, p. 2985.
(c) S.I. 1949 (No. 1390) I, p. 2763 and S.I. 1950 (No. 1468) II, p. 38.
