"3. A day allowance in respect of duties not involving a night's absence shall be payable at the rate of 4s. 0d. when a member is necessarily absent from his home or place of business for more than five hours but not more than eight hours, and at the rate of 9s. 6d. when his absence exceeds eight hours:

Provided that where the member orders lunch or dinner on a train or boat, the above rates shall respectively be 6s. 6d. and 12s., or where lunch and dinner are both so ordered during an absence exceeding eight hours, 13s."

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this twenty-seventh day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

(L.S.) Iain Macleod,
Minister of Health.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations alter the existing regulations by increasing the allowances to be made to the members of certain bodies constituted under the National Health Service Act, 1946, for the use of their motor vehicles on official business, and in respect of subsistence expenses.

NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE, SCOTLAND

1952 No. 1026 (S. 45)

The National Health Service (Charges for Drugs and Appliances) (Scotland) Regulations, 1952

Made - - - -	23*rd May*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	23*rd May*, 1952
Coming into Operation	1*st June*, 1952

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 40 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act, 1947(a), as amended by section 16 of the National Health Service (Amendment) Act, 1949(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the National Health Service (Charges for Drugs and Appliances) (Scotland) Regulations, 1952, and shall come into operation on the first day of June, 1952.

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"the Act" means the National Health Service (Scotland) Act, 1947;

"drugs and appliances" means drugs or medicines or prescribed appliances supplied by or on the order of a medical practitioner or prescribed drugs or medicines supplied on the order of a dental practitioner;

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 27. (b) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 93.

" scheduled appliances " means the appliances set out in the Schedule hereto ; and

" the General Medical Regulations " means the National Health Service (General Medical and Pharmaceutical Services) (Scotland) Regulations, 1948(a), as amended(b).

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(1) Any person supplied under section 40 of the Act with drugs and appliances in accordance with orders given by medical or dental practitioners shall be liable to pay to the person supplying the same the following charges—

(a) such sum as is specified in the Schedule hereto as payable by the patient in respect of every scheduled appliance so supplied, and

(b) the sum of one shilling in respect of the drugs and appliances supplied to him by virtue of every prescription form which does not include an order for the supply of a scheduled appliance.

(2) A chemist providing pharmaceutical services shall accordingly, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Terms of Service contained in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to the General Medical Regulations, be under no obligation to supply drugs and appliances except upon payment of the appropriate charge specified in paragraph (1) of this regulation.

4. The amount payable by an Executive Council under arrangements made under section 40 of the Act to a person providing pharmaceutical services shall be reduced by the following amounts:—

(a) such sum as is specified in the Schedule hereto as payable by the patient in respect of every scheduled appliance supplied on the order of a medical practitioner, and

(b) an amount equal to one shilling for every prescription form on which drugs and appliances have been ordered by a medical or dental practitioner and supplied by the person, not being a prescription form on which a scheduled appliance has been supplied.

5. In sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 8 of Part I of the Fourth Schedule to the General Medical Regulations (which provides for payment for drugs and appliances in accordance with the provisions of the drug tariff) after the words " set forth therein " there shall be added the words " subject however in either case to any deduction required to be made by regulations made under section 40 of the Act as amended by section 16 of the National Health Service (Amendment) Act, 1949 ".

6.—(1) Any person supplied with drugs and appliances by a medical practitioner in accordance with the requirements of sub-paragraph (c) of sub-paragraph (9) of paragraph 7 of Part I of the First Schedule to the General Medical Regulations (which provides for the supply by medical practitioners of such drugs and prescribed appliances as are therein mentioned) shall be liable to pay to the practitioner the following charges—

(a) such sum as is specified in the Schedule hereto as payable by the patient in respect of every scheduled appliance so supplied, and

(b) the sum of one shilling in respect of drugs and prescribed appliances, other than scheduled appliances, supplied on any one occasion.

(a) S.I. 1948/1258; Rev. XV, p. 857; 1948 I, p. 2393.
(b) See Rev. XV, p. 857, and also S.I. 1949/566, 1168, 2344; 1950/465, 782, 1345, 1685; 1951/524, 1765; 1949 I, pp. 2655–2659; 1950 I, pp. 1446–1451; 1951 I, pp. 1416–1419.
(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(2) A medical practitioner shall be liable to account to the Executive Council for the charges payable to him in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(3) A medical practitioner supplying drugs and appliances in accordance with the said requirements shall accordingly, notwithstanding anything in the said sub-paragraph, be under no obligation to supply drugs and appliances except upon payment of the appropriate charge specified in paragraph (1) of this regulation.

7.—(1) Any person supplied with drugs by a dental practitioner in accordance with the requirements of sub-paragraph (3) of paragraph 9 of Part I of the First Schedule to the National Health Service (General Dental Services) (Scotland) Regulations, 1948(a) (which provides for the supply by dental practitioners of such drugs as are therein mentioned) shall be liable to pay to the practitioner a charge of one shilling in respect of the drugs so supplied on any one occasion.

(2) The fees payable to a dental practitioner under regulation 6 of the National Health Service (General Dental Services Fees) (Scotland) Regulations, 1948(b), in respect of drugs supplied in accordance with the aforesaid requirements shall be reduced by an amount equal to the charges received or recoverable by him under these regulations.

8. For the purpose of regulations 6 and 7 of these regulations drugs and appliances shall be deemed to be supplied on one occasion, notwithstanding that they are supplied at different times, if they are supplied at or following a visit or attendance and before a succeeding visit or attendance takes place:

Provided that a further supply shall not be deemed to take place on the same occasion as the original supply notwithstanding that there has been no intervening visit or attendance.

9. Any sum payable under these regulations shall be recoverable as a debt.

Dated this 23rd day of May, 1952.

James Stuart,
One of Her Majesty's
Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
