SUGAR

1952 No. 1132

The Sugar Industry (Provision for Research and Education in the growing of Sugar Beet in Great Britain) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 9th June, 1952

Whereas by virtue of sub-section (2) of Section 6 of the Sugar Industry Act, 1942(a), the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and the Secretary of State for Scotland (hereinafter referred to as " the Minister " and " the Secretary of State ", respectively) after consultation with the British Sugar Corporation Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as " the Corporation ") and a body representative of growers of home grown beet have prepared for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1953, a programme for carrying out research and education in matters affecting the growing of home grown beet and such programme is set out in the Schedule hereto:

Now, therefore, the Minister and the Secretary of State by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 6 of the said Act as continued in force by the Emergency Laws (Continuance) Order, 1951(b), and of all other powers them enabling in that behalf, hereby order as follows: —

1. This Order may be cited as the " Sugar Industry (Provision for Research and Education in the growing of Sugar Beet in Great Britain) Order, 1952 ".

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies for the purpose of the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The programme of research and education set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1953.

4. The contributions from the Corporation and every grower of home grown beet who delivers beet to the Corporation during the period ending on the 31st March, 1953, towards expenditure incurred on the programme of research and education for that period shall be assessed as follows: —

(a) in the case of any grower of home grown beet, the contribution shall be at the rate of one penny for every ton of home grown beet sold by him for delivery to the Corporation in that period.

(b) in the case of the Corporation the contribution shall be at the rate of one penny for every ton of home grown beet delivered to the Corporation in that period, or sixpence for every quantity of sugar manufactured or refined by the Corporation in that period equal to one ton of white sugar, whichever is the less.

5. The rate of the contribution on each ton of home grown beet sold by the grower for delivery to the Corporation during the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1953, shall be specified in all contracts made between the Corporation and the grower concerned. The total amount of the contribution shall be payable by the grower to the Corporation out of any sums standing to the credit of that grower in account with the Corporation and shall be deducted by the Corporation from the amount payable to the grower. The Corporation shall pay the proceeds, together with the amount of the contribution from the Corporation assessed in accordance with Article 4 (b) of this Order, to the Minister within that period for account of the Sugar Beet Research and Education Fund specified in sub-section (3) of Section 18 of the Sugar Industry (Reorganisation) Act, 1936(a). All expenditure properly incurred in carrying out the programme of research and education for the period ending on the 31st day of March, 1953, shall be defrayed from that fund.

6. The amount of any contribution which has not been paid to the Minister during the period within which it is due shall become a debt due to the Minister and without prejudice to any other remedy for the recovery thereof, may be recoverable by him summarily as a civil debt. In its application to Scotland this paragraph shall have effect as if the word " summarily " were omitted.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this 9th day of June, 1952.

Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland this 9th day of June, 1952.

(L.S.) James Stuart,
Secretary of State for Scotland.
