8. A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all the time during which he is present on the premises of the employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances, that is to say—

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work, and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon; or

(d) during normal meal times, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

WORKERS WHO ARE NOT REQUIRED TO WORK ON A CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY

9. Where a worker is not required to work on a customary holiday he shall be paid for the customary holiday not less than the amount to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule had the day not been a customary holiday and had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week; provided that the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of, or accident to, the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last working day on which work was available to him immediately prior to the customary holiday and that he presents himself for employment at the usual starting hour on the first working day following the holiday.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

10.—(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in respect of any week the total remuneration (excluding the amount specified in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) payable to a full-time worker (as defined in paragraph 12 of this Schedule);

(a) under those other provisions; and

is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration with the addition of any amount which may be payable in respect of remuneration excluded from the total remuneration referred to in this sub-paragraph.

(2) The amount to be excluded from the total remuneration referred to in the last foregoing sub-paragraph is, in the case of all workers (other than workers wholly engaged in the sale of excisable liquors in an undertaking open on seven days in the week), the whole of the remuneration payable in respect of overtime for work on a Sunday or on the weekly short day (other than on a weekly short day occurring during the Christmas period) and one half of the remuneration payable in respect of overtime for work on a customary holiday.

(3) The guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of any week to a full-time worker is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 2, paragraph 3, paragraph 4 or paragraph 5 of this Schedule for work in his normal occupation for the number of hours specified in (a), (b), (c) or (d) of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 11 of this Schedule, as the case may be:

Provided that where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 46 hours in the week (or, in the case of a worker under 16 years of age, for less than 44 hours) by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed the employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 11 of this Schedule) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies:

Provided also that where in any week a worker at his request and with the consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a holiday allowed in pursuance of a wages regulation order or a customary holiday or a holiday allowed to all persons in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday or during which he is absent from work in accordance with the second proviso to sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph) is

(a) capable of and available for work; and

(b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(5) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(6) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid:

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker, in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.
