medical officer acting on his behalf to make a medical examination of the said person, and the responsible manager shall give to the medical officer of health all reasonable assistance in the matter.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this twenty-sixth day of February, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

(L.S.) Iain Macleod,
Minister of Health.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations are in substitution of those revoked by regulation 2. They correspond with those regulations in requiring notification of malaria, dysentery, acute primary pneumonia and acute influenzal pneumonia, and in prescribing action, in conformity with the present working of the health services, in relation to the diseases named in the fourth schedule.

They amplify, however, the precautionary measures provided for in the revoked regulations against food poisoning—

(1) by relating these (instead of to enteric fever and dysentery, as formerly) to typhoid fever, paratyphoid fever or other salmonella infections (which includes the diseases previously known as enteric fever), dysentery and staphylococcal infection likely to cause food poisoning;

(2) by applying these measures in general to persons shown to be carriers of these diseases as well as to persons suffering from them;

(3) by preventing such persons (in either class) not only from continuing employment involving the handling of food, as formerly, but also from entering such employment; and

(4) by enabling a local authority to authorise the medical officer of health to issue notices in emergency, in order to check the spread of these diseases.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Section 143 of the Public Health Act, 1936 (which confers power to make sanitary regulations in relation to ports and aerodromes), was extended to Northern Ireland by the Public Health (Northern Ireland) (Extension of Enactments) Order, 1939 (S.R. & O. 1939/1438; 1939 II, p. 2914). As originally enacted section 143 did not apply to any Crown property. The present Order, made under paragraph 1 (4) of the Eleventh Schedule to the Civil Aviation Act, 1949, provides that section 143 shall apply, with certain adaptations, in relation to those aerodromes in Northern Ireland which are vested in, or under the control of, the Minister of Transport and Civil Aviation and to persons and aircraft arriving at or departing from them.
