3. For the purposes of this Order the retail bread and flour confectionery trade does not include the sale of biscuits or meat pastries or any sale for immediate consumption on the premises at which the sale is effected, but save as aforesaid consists of the sale by retail of bread (including rolls) or flour confectionery (including pastry) and operations connected with any such sale, including:—

(i) operations in or about a shop or other place where the bread or flour confectionery is sold, being operations carried on for the purpose of or in connection with such sale;

(ii) operations in connection with the transport of bread or flour confectionery when carried on in conjunction with its sale by retail;

(iii) clerical or other office work carried on in conjunction with the sale by retail as aforesaid and relating to such sale or to any of the operations specified in (i) or (ii) of this paragraph;

and for the purposes of this definition "sale by retail" includes any sale to a person for use in connection with a catering business carried on by him, when such sale takes place at or in connection with a shop engaged in the retail sale of bread or flour confectionery to the general public.

1953 No. 504

The Wages Council (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade, Scotland) Order, 1953

Made - - - -	23*rd March*, 1953
Laid before Parliament	24*th March*, 1953
Coming into Operation	9*th April*, 1953

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister") has received, pursuant to Section 4 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), a wages council recommendation for the establishment of a wages council in respect of workers in the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade in Scotland and their employers;

Now, therefore, the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by Sections 4 and 5 of the said Act and of all other powers in that behalf, for the purpose of giving effect to the said recommendation, hereby makes the following Order:—

Establishment of Wages Council

1. There shall be established in respect of the workers to whom this Order applies as set out in the Schedule hereto, and their employers, a wages council to be known as the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (Scotland).

Short title, interpretation and commencement

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Wages Council (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade, Scotland) Order, 1953.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) This Order shall come into operation on the 9th day of April, 1953.

Dated this 23rd day of March, 1953.

Walter Monckton,
Minister of Labour and National Service.

SCHEDULE

WORKERS TO WHOM THE ORDER APPLIES

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Schedule, the workers to whom this Order applies are all workers employed in Scotland in any undertaking or any branch or department of an undertaking, being an undertaking, branch or department, wholly or mainly engaged in the retail bread and flour confectionery trade:

Provided that if a branch or department of an undertaking is not so engaged, this Order shall not apply to workers employed in that branch or department (notwithstanding that the undertaking as a whole is so engaged) except as respects their employment in a department of that branch if that department is so engaged.

2. This Order does not apply to any of the following workers in respect of their employment in any of the following circumstances, that is to say:—

(1) workers in relation to whom any of the following wages councils operates in respect of any employment which is for the time being within the field of operation of that wages council, that is to say:—

(a) the Baking Wages Council (Scotland);

(b) the Milk Distributive Wages Council (Scotland);

(c) the Road Haulage Wages Council;

(2) workers in relation to whom any Wages Board established under the Catering Wages Act, 1943(a), operates in respect of any employment which is for the time being within the field of operation of that Wages Board;

(3) workers (other than workers employed as cleaners) employed in the maintenance or repair of buildings, plant, equipment or vehicles;

(4) workers employed in any ship (which includes every description of vessel used in navigation);

(5) workers employed on post office business.

3. For the purposes of this Order the retail bread and flour confectionery trade does not include the sale of biscuits or meat pastries or any sale for immediate consumption on the premises at which the sale is effected, but save as aforesaid consists of the sale by retail of bread (including rolls) or flour confectionery (including pastry) and operations connected with any such sale, including:—

(i) operations in or about a shop or other place where the bread or flour confectionery is sold, being operations carried on for the purpose of or in connection with such sale;

(ii) operations in connection with the transport of bread or flour confectionery when carried on in conjunction with its sale by retail;

(iii) clerical or other office work carried on in conjunction with the sale by retail as aforesaid and relating to such sale or to any of the operations specified in (i) or (ii) of this paragraph;

and for the purposes of this definition "sale by retail" includes any sale to a person for use in connection with a catering business carried on by him, when such sale takes place at or in connection with a shop engaged in the retail sale of bread or flour confectionery to the general public.
