by the Secretary of State to be paid to a witness in a case before the Court of Criminal Appeal.

2. Where any question is referred to a special commissioner, appointed by the Courts-Martial Appeal Court, or where any person is appointed as an assessor to the Court, he shall be allowed—

(a) such remuneration as the Court having regard to his qualifications and ordinary professional remuneration may think reasonable, but not exceeding the amount for the time being authorised by the Secretary of State to be paid to a special commissioner appointed by the Court of Criminal Appeal or to an assessor appointed to that Court; and

(b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Court may consider reasonable.

3. These regulations may be cited as the Courts-Martial Appeal Court (Witnesses' Allowances, etc.) Regulations, 1953, and shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1953.

Dated the 30th day of March, 1953.
