EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom are bound by virtue of their accession to the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the Specialised Agencies of the United Nations (Cmd. 7673) in respect of the International Civil Aviation Organisation to accord privileges and immunities to representatives of Governments members of the Organisation to its Assembly and executive body (however designated), to any Commission provided for in its constitution and to any Committee of any of these bodies. The Constitution of the Organisation (see Article 43 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation signed at Chicago on the 7th December, 1944 (Cmd. 8742)), provides that it shall consist of an Assembly, a Council and such other bodies as may be necessary. The Diplomatic Privileges (International Civil Aviation Organisation) Order in Council, 1949, made provision only for representatives of member Governments to the Council of the Organisation. This Order makes the necessary amendment.
