EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This order determines the scales of compensation to be paid for pigs slaughtered under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950, on account of the disease known as atrophic rhinitis.

1954 No. 1689

The Diseases of Animals (Licensing of Waste Food Sterilisation Plant) Order, 1954

Made - - - - 15*th December*, 1954
Coming into Operation 31*st December*, 1954

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Sections 1 and 20 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950(a), and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows :—

Citation and Commencement

1. This Order (which extends to Great Britain) may be cited as the Diseases of Animals (Licensing of Waste Food Sterilisation Plant) Order, 1954, and shall come into operation on the 31st day of December, 1954.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them :—

" animals " means cattle, sheep, pigs or goats ;

" boiled " means exposed to a temperature of not less than 212° F. ;

" poultry " means birds of the following species, that is to say, domestic fowls, turkeys, geese, ducks, guinea fowls, domestic pigeons, and pheasants kept in captivity ;

" waste foods " has the meaning assigned to it by Article 3 of this Order.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Meaning of Waste Foods

3. The waste foods to which this Order applies are—

(a) any meat, bones, offal or other part of the carcase of any animal or of any poultry ;

(b) any broken or waste foodstuffs, including table or kitchen refuse, scraps or waste which contain or have been in contact with any meat, bones, offal or with any other part of the carcase of any animal or poultry.

Provided that this Order shall not apply to any such waste foods as aforesaid if they are—

(i) waste foods collected or received on behalf of a pig club registered with the Small Pigkeepers' Council, or the Scottish Agricultural Organisation Society Limited, or a poultry club registered with the National Domestic Poultrykeepers' Council, or

(a) 14 Geo. 6. c. 36. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(ii) waste foods which have already been sterilised in accordance with the requirements of this Order, or

(iii) waste foods to which the Diseases of Animals (Boiling of Animal Foodstuffs) Order of 1947(a) applies, and either are collected or received from premises in respect of which a certificate of exemption under that Order is in force or are a foodstuff in respect of which such a certificate is in force.

Prohibition of Disposal of Untreated Waste Foods

4. Subject to the provisions of this Order, no person who collects or receives any waste foods to which this Order applies from premises not in his occupation which are in any of the areas specified in the First Schedule to this Order shall use them for feeding to animals or poultry, or part with the possession or control of them to any other person for use for that purpose, unless they have been sterilised in accordance with the following provisions of this Order.

Treatment of Waste Foods

5.—(1) Where any waste foods are by this Order required to be sterilised they shall be boiled for at least one hour by means of a plant and equipment licensed by an officer of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries and, until the waste foods have been so boiled, they shall be kept separate from waste foods that have not been boiled as required, and shall be kept so that no animals or poultry have access to them.

(2) Any licence granted under this article may contain conditions as to the person by whom or the place at which the licensed plant and equipment may be operated and such other conditions as may be supplementary or incidental to the granting of the licence.

Transitional Provisions

6. Any plant and equipment approved by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries or by the Secretary of State for Scotland by a licence which was granted under any of the Orders specified in the Second Schedule to this Order and was in force immediately before the commencement of this Order shall, until notice to the contrary is given by the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, be deemed to be licensed under this Order, and the plant and equipment may be operated under and subject to the provisions of this Order by the person to whom the licence was granted.

Exclusion of Local Authorities and Small Stock Owners from the Order

7. This Order shall not apply to—

(a) any local authority collecting or receiving any waste foods to which this Order applies in the exercise of their functions under Section 9 of the Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1954(b), or, in Scotland, any town or county council; or

(b) any person having in his possession or under his control not more than four weaned pigs or fifty head of poultry who collects or receives waste foods for consumption on his own premises by such pigs or poultry.

Enforcement

8. The provisions of this Order shall, except where it is otherwise provided, be executed and enforced by the local authority for the purposes of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950, as defined in Section 59 of that Act.

(a) S.R. & O. 1947/1175 (Rev. II. p. 317 : 1947 I, p. 82) (b) 2 & 3 Eliz. 2. c. 39.

Amendment of and Saving for the Diseases of Animals (Boiling of Animal Foodstuffs) Order of 1947

9. The Diseases of Animals (Boiling of Animal Foodstuffs) Order of 1947 shall not apply to any waste foods which have been sterilised in accordance with this Order, if, before being fed to animals or poultry, they have been kept separate from all unsterilised waste foods, and from contact with any animals or poultry, but otherwise nothing in this Order shall be construed as in any way exempting any person from complying with any of the provisions of that Order.

In witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this fifteenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

(L.S.) D. Heathcoat Amory,
Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries.
