EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from the 13th June, 1955, amends the Fur Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1952 (Order Z.(59)), as amended by the Fur Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1953 (Order Z. (63)), by increasing the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by those Orders. It also abolishes the provisions (contained in Part IV of Order Z. (59)) relating to workers whose training has been interrupted by War Service and repeats without alteration the provision in Order Z. (63) which abolished the requirement (contained in Order Z. (59)) that a "learner" before the learners rate becomes applicable to him should hold a certificate of registration issued by the Wages Council. Order Z. (63) is revoked.

New provisions in the Schedule are printed in italics.

1955 No. 646

The Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1955

Made - - - -	28th April, 1955
Coming into Operation	16th May, 1955

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in the First and Second Schedules hereto:

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1955.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 16th day of May, 1955, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid,

(a) 8 & 9 Geo. 6. c. 17.

the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the First and Second Schedules hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1954(b), shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 28th day of April, 1955.

Godfrey H. Ince,
Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.

PART IV

OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME—ALL WORKERS

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

6. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:—

(a) In any week, exclusive of any time for which double time is payable under the provisions of (b) or (c) of this paragraph, for time worked in excess of 45 hours—

(i) for the first 3 hours so worked ... ... Time-and-a-quarter

(ii) thereafter ... ... Time-and-a-half

Provided that where in any week a worker is allowed a holiday on any day of customary holiday the said period of 45 hours shall be reduced by 9 hours in respect of each such holiday which is allowed on a day normally worked by the worker.

(b) On a Sunday or a customary holiday—

for all time worked ... ... Double time

(c) On a Saturday—

for all time worked after noon ... ... Double time

Provided that where in order to conform to any scheme proposed by a Regional Board for Industry or a Committee thereof for the purpose of spreading the load of industrial power, it is necessary to re-arrange the ordinary working hours in the establishment in which the worker is employed so that workers are required to attend for work beyond noon on Saturday, the said overtime rate of double time shall not be payable on Saturday until after the time fixed for the termination of work under such re-arrangement.

7. In this Part of this Schedule—

(1) The expressions " time-and-a-quarter ", " time-and-a-half " and " double time " mean respectively: —

(a) in the case of a time worker, one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the general minimum time rate otherwise payable to the worker;

(b) in the case of a piece worker to whom a piece work basis time rate otherwise applies under paragraph 3 or paragraph 5 of this Schedule,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the said piece work basis time rate and, in addition thereto,

(ii) piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker, at least the same amount of money as the said piece work basis time rate;

(c) in the case of any other worker employed on piece work,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the general minimum time rate which would be payable under Part II or Part III of this Schedule if the worker were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply and, in addition thereto,

(ii) piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker, at least the same amount of money as the said general minimum time rate.

(2) The expression " customary holiday " means—

(a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such week-day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday and August Bank Holiday.

(ii) In Scotland—

New Year's Day (or, if New Year's Day falls on a Sunday, the following Monday);

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday; and three other days (being days on which the worker normally works) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday;

or (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer in Scotland and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day, substituted therefor by the employer, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day.

(3) The expression " establishment " includes a branch or a department of an establishment.

WAITING TIME

8.—(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied,

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform,

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon,

(d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be payable if he were a time worker.

PART V

APPLICABILITY OF STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

9. This Schedule does not apply to workers employed in the weaving of hair machine belting or in any preparatory, finishing, warehousing or packing operation incidental to or appertaining to such weaving, but save as aforesaid applies to workers in relation to whom the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) operates, that is to say, workers employed in Great Britain in the trade specified in the Schedule to the Trade Boards (Hair, Bass and Fibre Trade, Great Britain) (Constitution and Proceedings) Regulations, 1936(a), namely:—

The drafting, dressing or mixing of bass, whisk or similar fibres or horse hair or other hairs and the curling or weaving of hair or fibre or of mixed hair and fibre, and all preparatory, finishing, warehousing or packing operations incidental to or appertaining to all or any of the above processes, but excluding any of the above operations or processes where they are carried on in association with or in conjunction with the manufacture of brushes or brooms, and excluding also the dressing of animal skins.

SECOND SCHEDULE

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

The Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1951(b) (Order H.B. (37)), shall have effect as if in the Schedule thereto for sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 2 (which relates to customary holidays) there were substituted the following sub-paragraph:—

"(1) An employer shall allow to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies a holiday (hereinafter in this Schedule referred to as a 'customary holiday') in each year on the days specified in the following sub-paragraph, provided that the worker has been in his employment for a period of not less than eight weeks immediately preceding the customary holiday and has worked for the employer during the whole or part of that period and (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of the proved illness of the worker) has worked for the employer throughout the last working day on which work was available to him immediately preceding the customary holiday."

(a) S.R. & O. 1936/1287 (1936 II, p. 3492). (b) S.I. 1951/784 (1951 II, p. 1037).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order has effect from the 16th May, 1955. The First Schedule sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable in substitution for that fixed by the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1954 (Order H.B. (43)).

The Second Schedule amends the Hair, Bass and Fibre Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Holidays) Order, 1951 (Order H.B. (37)), by varying the conditions entitling a worker to be allowed by his employer a customary holiday and to be paid holiday remuneration for the customary holiday. Order H.B. (43) is revoked.

New provisions in the Schedules are printed in italics.

1955 No. 68

The Hairdressing Undertakings Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1955

Made - - - -	12*th January*, 1955
Coming into Operation	31*st January*, 1955

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Hairdressing Undertakings Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Hairdressing Undertakings Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1955.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 31st day of January, 1955, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Hairdressing Undertakings Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1954(c), shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 12th day of January, 1955.
