LOCAL GOVERNMENT, SCOTLAND

1957 No. 1881 (S. 90)

The Local Government (Allowances for Attendance at Road Safety Conferences) (Scotland) Regulations, 1957

Made - - - -	29th October, 1957
Laid before Parliament	5th November, 1957
Coming into Operation	6th November, 1957

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections 117 and 118 of the Local Government Act, 1948(a), as read with sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph 1 of the Second Schedule to the Road Traffic Act, 1956(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations :—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Local Government (Allowances for Attendance at Road Safety Conferences) (Scotland) Regulations, 1957, and shall come into operation on 6th November, 1957.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies to these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. Road safety committees set up as part of the arrangements made by the councils of counties, large and small burghs are hereby designated for the purposes of the Second Schedule to the Road Traffic Act, 1956 (which makes provision in relation to travelling etc. allowances for attendance at road safety conferences).

4.—(1) Attendance as a representative of a road safety committee designated by the preceding regulation, or of any local or other authority, at any of the following conferences or meetings, that is to say—

(a) the annual National Safety Congress of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents ;

(b) the annual Conference and quarterly meetings of the Scottish Accident Prevention Council, shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) of this regulation, be an approved duty for the purposes of Part VI of the Local Government Act, 1948 (which make provision in relation to the payment of allowances to members of local authorities and other bodies).

(2) (a) In respect of attendance in Scotland at any such conference or meeting as is designated by paragraph (1) of this regulation, allowances shall not be paid under the said Part VI to—

(i) more than three representatives of the road safety committee of a county or large burgh, or of a joint road safety committee, or of the council of a county or large burgh ; or

(ii) more than two representatives of any other road safety committee or local authority, or of any other authority.

(a) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 26. (b) 4 & 5 Eliz. 2. c. 67. (c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(b) In respect of attendance elsewhere in the United Kingdom at any such conference or meeting, allowances shall not be so paid to—

(i) more than two representatives of the road safety committee of a county or large burgh, or of a joint road safety committee, or of the council of a county or large burgh; or

(ii) more than one representative of any other road safety committee or local authority, or of any other authority.

5. In these regulations the expression "road safety committee" means a committee or other body set up to act for the purposes of section 5 of the Road Traffic Act, 1956 (which makes provision in relation to road safety information and road training).

Dated this 29th day of October, 1957.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Regulations designate road safety committees, and certain conferences and meetings, for the purposes of the Second Schedule to the Road Traffic Act, 1956, which makes provision in relation to travelling etc. allowances at road safety conferences.
