that person shall, for the purpose of his right to the amount in question, be treated as if in any period referred to in paragraph (b) he had satisfied the said condition by reference to the increased weekly rate.

(2) In any case in which the provisions of paragraph (1) of this regulation apply in relation to any of the said personal benefits, the weekly rate of any reduction of that personal benefit shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (4) of this regulation, be determined, for any part of the period of free in-patient treatment which occurs during the forty-four weeks next following the first eight weeks thereof, in accordance with the provisions of regulation 4, and, for any part of the period of that treatment which occurs after the first fifty-two weeks thereof, in accordance with the provisions of regulation 5.

(4) In any case where a reduction of personal benefit at a rate determined in accordance with the provisions of regulation 4 or paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) or sub-paragraph (d) of paragraph (4) of regulation 5 would reduce the rate of that personal benefit, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, to less than fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to less than ten shillings a week, the reduction of that personal benefit shall not be as so determined but shall be such (if any) as will reduce the rate of that personal benefit, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week.

4. Where, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (2) of regulation 3, the weekly rate of any reduction of personal benefit is to be determined for any period in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, that reduction shall be,—

(2) For any part of the period referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation during which the beneficiary has a dependant and in respect of which an application has been made by the beneficiary to the Minister to pay on behalf of the beneficiary to that dependant, or to some other person who is approved by the Minister and satisfies the Minister that he will apply it for the benefit of that dependant, so much (if any) of the personal benefit as would, but for the provisions of these regulations, be payable to the beneficiary in excess, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, of twenty-five shillings a week, or, in any other case, of twenty shillings a week, the reduction of personal benefit shall be at the rate of ten shillings a week.

(3) (a) For any part of the period of free in-patient treatment which falls within the period of fifty-two weeks next following the first fifty-two weeks thereof, and during which the beneficiary has not a dependant or, if the beneficiary has a dependant, in respect of which any such application as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this regulation has not been made, the reduction of personal benefit shall, subject to the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph, be at the rate of twenty shillings a week.

(b) In addition to the reduction of benefit specified in the last foregoing sub-paragraph, so much (if any) of the personal benefit as would, but for the provisions of these regulations, be payable for the said part of the said period in excess, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, of thirty-five shillings a week, or, in any other case, of thirty shillings a week, shall not be payable unless and until the beneficiary is discharged from the hospital or similar institution.

(i) on a day on which the beneficiary is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period exceeding fifty-two weeks, his wife or her husband is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period which began fifty-two weeks before that day, and

(ii) as respects the period of free in-patient treatment received by the beneficiary, the provisions of paragraph (3) of this regulation have not applied in relation to any part of that period before that day, those provisions shall apply as if the part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the beneficiary next following the first fifty-two weeks thereof had begun on that day.

(c) Where the benefit in question is personal benefit by way of sickness benefit and the beneficiary is a woman who is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period of not less than fifty-two weeks, for any part of the period of that treatment which occurs after the first fifty-two weeks thereof and for which there is payable to her husband in respect of her any dependency benefit under the Act, the reduction of that personal benefit shall be such (if any) as will reduce the weekly rate thereof, where the beneficiary is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week.

(d) If the beneficiary is a man and the benefit in question is personal benefit by way of sickness benefit or a retirement pension, or if the beneficiary is a woman and the benefit in question is personal benefit by way of a retire-

(i) notwithstanding the provisions of regulation 8 of these regulations, the wife or husband of the beneficiary shall not be regarded as a dependant of the beneficiary, and

(ii) (where the beneficiary is a man and his wife would, but for the provisions of this sub-paragraph, be regarded as a dependant of the beneficiary) the reduction of the personal benefit in question shall be at the weekly rate of thirty shillings:

Provided that the provisions of head (ii) of this sub-paragraph shall not apply for any period in respect of which any such application as is mentioned in paragraph (2) of this regulation has been made by the beneficiary in relation to any person except his wife who, for that period, is a dependant of the beneficiary.

(i) for any part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the dependant which occurs during the ninety-six weeks next following the first eight weeks thereof shall be reduced by ten shillings or by such lesser amount (if any) as will reduce that weekly rate, where the dependant is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week; and

(ii) for any part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the dependant which occurs after the end of one hundred and four weeks beginning with its commencement shall (subject to the provisions of the next following sub-paragraph) be reduced by such an amount (if any) as will reduce that weekly rate, where the dependant is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week.

(b) Where the beneficiary is a man and the dependant is his wife who is residing with him, the dependency benefit which, but for this sub-paragraph, would be payable to the beneficiary in respect of the dependant for any part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the dependant which occurs after the end of one hundred and four weeks beginning with its commencement shall not be payable unless the beneficiary is regularly incurring expenditure in respect of the dependant or is regularly making, or causing to be made, some payment to the dependant or to some other person for the benefit of the dependant.

(4) In any case where the beneficiary is married and the dependant is his wife or her husband and each of them is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period of not less than fifty-two weeks, the following provisions shall apply:—

(a) For any part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the beneficiary—

(i) which occurs both after the first fifty-two weeks thereof and during that part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the dependant which occurs during the fifty-two weeks next following the first fifty-two weeks thereof, and

(ii) in respect of which an application has been made by the beneficiary to the Minister to pay on behalf of the beneficiary to the dependant (subject to the dependant's being discharged from the hospital or similar institution and subject also to the provisions of the next following regulation) or to some other person who is approved by the Minister and satisfies the Minister that he will apply it for the benefit of a child of the beneficiary's family so much (if any) of the dependency benefit as would, but for this regulation, be payable to the beneficiary in respect of the dependant at a rate in excess, where the dependant is a tuberculosis patient, of twenty-five shillings a week, or, in any other case, of twenty shillings a week, the weekly rate of the dependency benefit which, but for this regulation, would be payable to the beneficiary in respect of the dependant shall be reduced by ten shillings a week or by such lesser amount (if any) as will reduce that weekly rate, where the dependant is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week.

(b) For any other part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the beneficiary which occurs both after the first fifty-two weeks thereof and during that part of the period of free in-patient treatment received by the dependant which occurs after the first fifty-two weeks thereof, the weekly rate of the dependency benefit which, but for this regulation, would be payable to the beneficiary in respect of the dependant shall be reduced by such an amount (if any) as will reduce that weekly rate, where the dependant is a tuberculosis patient, to fifteen shillings a week, or, in any other case, to ten shillings a week.

(c) Any benefit in relation to which, in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, an application has been made by the beneficiary to the Minister for its payment to the dependant shall not be payable unless and until the dependant is discharged from the hospital or similar institution.

(5) In any case where the dependant is a child and is receiving free in-patient treatment after having received that treatment continuously for a period of not less than twelve weeks any dependency benefit which, but for this regulation, would be payable to the beneficiary in respect of the dependant shall not be payable unless the beneficiary is regularly incurring expenditure in respect of the dependant or is regularly making, or causing to be made, some payment to the dependant or to some other person for the benefit of the dependant.

(6) In any case (not being a case in which the provisions of sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (3) of this regulation or the provisions of the last foregoing paragraph apply) where, apart from this regulation, the conditions for the receipt by the beneficiary of any dependency benefit under the Act (not being any dependency benefit in relation to which an application has been made in accordance with the provisions of head (ii) of sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (4) of this regulation) are satisfied and the beneficiary has received free in-patient treatment continuously for a period exceeding fifty-two weeks, that dependency benefit, or such part thereof as would be payable but for the provisions of this paragraph, shall not be payable for any part of the period of free in-patient treatment which occurs after the first fifty-two weeks thereof and in respect of which an application has not been made by the beneficiary to the Minister to pay on behalf of the beneficiary that dependency benefit, or the said part thereof, to the dependant or to some other person who is approved by the Minister and satisfies the Minister that he will apply it for the benefit of the dependant.

(7) In relation to any case where the beneficiary is a married man and the dependant is his wife, the foregoing references to the dependency benefit which, but for this regulation, would be payable for any period shall, as respects any period throughout which the dependant is receiving free in-patient treatment and—

(a) for which personal benefit under the Act by way of sickness benefit is payable to her, or

(b) (where the dependency benefit in question is dependency benefit by way of an increase of a retirement pension) throughout which she is over pensionable age and for which any personal benefit specified in paragraph (2) of regulation 6 of the National Insurance (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations, 1948, is payable to her,

6A.—(1) Where, by virtue of any provision of these regulations, the payment to a person (hereafter in this regulation referred to as "the payee") of any sum by way of benefit is conditional upon the payee's discharge from a hospital or similar institution, that sum (which sum or any part thereof is hereafter in this regulation referred to as "resettlement benefit") shall not be payable unless and until, after the payee's discharge from the hospital or similar institution, the payee proves, in such manner as the Minister shall require, that his discharge therefrom was effected by and with the approval of a person authorised or empowered to discharge him and that he is neither receiving free in-patient treatment nor residing in any prescribed accommodation, and in that event there shall be payable only so much resettlement benefit as is payable in accordance with the provisions of the next following paragraph.

(2) Resettlement benefit shall, during the lifetime of the payee, be payable to him by instalments not exceeding seventy shillings a week unless, having regard to the circumstances of any particular case, the Minister decides that payment by other instalments or in one sum is desirable, and any resettlement benefit which, at the payee's death, has not been paid in accordance with this provision shall not be payable:

Provided that—

(a) the payment of any resettlement benefit shall be suspended while the payee is again receiving free in-patient treatment or is residing in any prescribed accommodation; and

* The words substituted by these regulations are shown in italics.

(b) where the payee again receives free in-patient treatment for any period, the amount of any resettlement benefit which, but for the provisions of this paragraph of this proviso, would be payable to him in respect of that period shall be reduced or extinguished by the deduction therefrom of the amount of any resettlement benefit which, at the commencement of that period, either was payable to him and was unpaid, or would have been so payable to him if he had then satisfied the conditions for the receipt thereof.

" FIFTH SCHEDULE Regulation 14

REDUCTION OF RATES OF RETIREMENT PENSIONS OF CERTAIN EXISTING PENSIONS CONTRIBUTORS WHO ATTAIN PENSIONABLE AGE WITHIN FIVE YEARS FROM THE APPOINTED DAY AND THE WIVES OF SUCH CONTRIBUTORS*

PART I

Classes of existing pensions contributors affected

The provisions contained in Part II of this Schedule shall have effect in relation to the following classes of existing pensions contributors:—

(1) Persons other than special voluntary contributors to whom the provisions of subsection (3) or (4) of section 16 of the Contributory Pensions Act of 1936, and regulation 3 of the Modification Regulations (which provisions related to exempt persons) were of application immediately before the appointed day so that any old age pension to which any such person could, but for the repeal of the Contributory Pensions Acts, have become entitled under those Acts, together with any increase under the Increase of Pensions Regulations, would have been at a weekly rate of less than twenty-six shillings, that is to say at any of the rates specified in the first column of the first table of rates set out in Part III of this Schedule;

(2) Persons other than special voluntary contributors who before the appointed day had been granted a superannuation allowance on retirement from excepted employment and to whom the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of section 17 of the Contributory Pensions Act of 1936, and regulation 4 of the Modification Regulations (which provisions related to persons formerly in excepted employment) were of application immediately before the appointed day so that any old age pension to which any such person could, but for the repeal of the Contributory Pensions Acts, have become entitled under those Acts, together with any increase under the Increase of Pensions Regulations, would have been at such a weekly rate as aforesaid;

(3) Persons other than special voluntary contributors—

(a) who immediately before the appointed day were employed in excepted employment by virtue of which contributions were payable in respect of them at the rates mentioned in Part IV of the First Schedule to the Contributory Pensions Act of 1936, or would have been so payable, if their rate of remuneration had not exceeded four hundred and twenty pounds a year, and who after that day are granted superannuation allowance on retirement from employment which would but for the Act have been such employment; and

(b) in respect of whom the said paragraph (b) and the said regulation 4 would, if the Contributory Pensions Acts had continued in force, have so applied that any old age pension to which any such person could have become entitled under those Acts, together with any increase under the Increase of Pensions Regulations, would have been at such a weekly rate as aforesaid;

(4) Persons to or in respect of whom a dependants war pension is at the appointed day or thereafter becomes payable and to whom the provisions of subsection (3) of section 14 of the Contributory Pensions Act of 1939 (which subsection provided for modified old age pensions where certain dependants war pensions were payable) applied or would, but for the repeal of the Contributory Pensions Acts, have applied so that any old age pension to which any such person could have become entitled under those Acts, together with any increase under the Increase of Pensions Regulations, would have been at such a weekly rate as aforesaid:

Provided that, in calculating for the purpose of this Part the rate at which a pension would have been payable under the said Acts, the application of the provisions of subsection (2) of section 5 of the Contributory Pensions Act of 1937 (which subsection related to reductions for low averages of contributions) shall be disregarded.

PART II

Provisions applying the reduced rates

(1) Where an existing pensions contributor of one of the classes specified in Part I of this Schedule attains pensionable age at any time not more than five years after the appointed day, any retirement pension to which he may become entitled shall be at the rate appropriate to the circumstances of the case set out in columns (2) to (6) of the first table of rates contained in Part III of this Schedule:

Provided that—

(a) where the yearly average of the contributions paid by or credited to any such person is less than fifty, the pension shall not be payable at the appropriate rate in the said first table, but at the rate appropriate to the circumstances of the case set out in the second table of rates contained in the said Part III; and

(b) in the case of a person of the class specified in paragraph (4) of the said Part I, the pension shall be either—

(i) at the appropriate rate specified in the first or the second table, as the case may be, contained in the said Part III; or

(ii) at such higher rate, if any, as may be necessary to ensure that the aggregate of the weekly rate of the dependants war pension and the retirement pension shall not be less than the rate of retirement pension which would have been payable but for the dependants war pension.

(2) Where any such person becomes entitled to an increase in respect of his wife or the wife of any such person becomes entitled to a retirement pension by virtue of his insurance during his life, the rate of such increase or wife's retirement pension shall be the rate in the second or fourth columns of the third table of rates contained in Part III of this Schedule set opposite to the rate of that person's retirement pension in the first or third column of that table; and for the purpose of this provision, where the husband's pension is payable under paragraph (ii) of proviso (b) to the foregoing paragraph, it shall be treated as if it were payable under paragraph (i) of the said proviso, and the said paragraph (ii) shall apply in the case of the wife of a person of the class specified in paragraph (4) of the said Part I in the same manner as it does to any such person.

(2A) The provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall apply to an increase of the retirement pension of any such person in respect of an adult dependant other than a wife in like manner as they apply in the case of an increase in respect of a wife.

(3) In the case of a person of the class specified in paragraph (1) of Part I of this Schedule or the wife of any such person, the provisions of this Part shall cease to apply as from the date on which that person attains the age of seventy.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made in consequence of the National Insurance (No. 2) Act, 1957, increase the rates of benefit payable under certain regulations made under the National Insurance Act, 1946, in order to bring them into conformity with the higher rates of benefits payable directly under that Act by virtue of the Act of 1957. Provision is made in relation to the payment of additional benefit in the case of persons not residing in Great Britain. The remaining provisions are of a minor or consequential character.
