Definition of "the prescribed time limit"

3.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, "the prescribed time limit" means—

(a) in rule 4, a period of twelve months after leaving employment as a contributory employee or local Act contributor or, in the case of a person who immediately after leaving such employment became engaged in national service, a period of six months after the termination of that service;

(b) in rule 6, a period of twelve months after leaving employment as an officer or, in the case of a person who immediately after leaving such employment became engaged in national service, a period of six months after the termination of that service:

Provided that the reference in sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph to a period of twelve months from the date on which a person ceased to be employed shall be construed in relation to a person to whom section 6 of the Act has become applicable as a reference to a period of five years from that date or such longer period as the Secretary of State may, in any particular case, allow.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, in the case of a person who in his new employment is, or before the date of the coming into operation of these rules was, an officer having been in his former employment a contributory employee or local Act contributor engaged in an employment mentioned in paragraph (4) of this rule, or who is, or before the date of the coming into operation of these rules was, a contributory employee or local Act contributor engaged in any such employment as is mentioned in that paragraph having in his former employment been an officer—

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(a) in reckoning the said period of twelve months or, as the case may be, the said period of six months mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of the last foregoing paragraph no account shall be taken of any period spent by the person on a course of study or training which he entered after leaving his former employment;

(b) if the person left employment in which he was a contributory employee or local Act contributor, or, as the case may be, an officer, in order to enter a course of study or training and on completion of that course became engaged in national service, he shall be deemed for the purposes of the last foregoing paragraph to have left his former employment at the time when he completed the said course of study or training.

(3) The provisions of the last foregoing paragraph shall not apply—

(a) to a person who in his new employment is, or was, an officer as aforesaid unless——

(i) before leaving his former employment (or, if between leaving that employment and entering the said course of study or training he was engaged in national service, before the end of that service) he gave notice in writing to the authority by whom he was employed of his intention to enter the said course of study or training;

(ii) he has not received, in pursuance of a claim made by him, a return of contributions from the fund to which he was a contributor in his former employment; and

(iii) the Ministry is satisfied that by reason of having undertaken the said course of study or training the person is, or was, better fitted for the duties of his new employment;

(b) to a person who in his new employment is, or was, a contributory employee or local Act contributor as aforesaid unless—

(i) the said course of study or training was approved by the Ministry on the person's written application made before or within three months after the commencement of the course; and

Provided that a person who, immediately after leaving employment as a contributory employee or local Act contributor, becomes engaged in national service and before the termination of that service gives notice of his intention to enter a course of study or training may, on giving such notice, pay to the authority maintaining the superannuation fund to which he was formerly a contributor an amount equal to any sums paid to him by way of return of contributions, in pursuance of a claim made by him, by that authority and, if he pays the amount, shall be deemed for the purposes of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph not to have claimed a return of contributions.

(4) The employments to which paragraph (2) of this rule refers are—

(b) employment as a person to whom regulation 22 of the benefits regulations or a provision of a local Act scheme corresponding to the said regulation 23 applies or as a person to whom such a provision would have applied if she had given a notice corresponding to that referred to in subsection (2) of section 9 of the Act of 1953;

(c) in the case of a male person, employment in a children's home or hostel provided by a local authority under any enactment, other than an enactment relating to education, in which the person has the care of persons under the age of eighteen years.

PART II

TRANSFER FROM SCOTTISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT TO NORTHERN IRELAND HEALTH SERVICE

Transfer values payable to the Ministry of Health and Local Government for Northern Ireland

4.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, where, after ceasing to be employed in employment by virtue of which he was a contributory employee or local Act contributor (in this Part of these rules referred to in relation to such a person as his "former employment"), a person enters, or before the date of the coming into operation of these rules entered, employment as an officer (in this Part of these rules referred to in relation to such a person as his "new employment") within the prescribed time limit and without having become entitled to any benefit under the Acts of 1937 to 1953 or the Act of 1937 or the local Act scheme to which he was subject, other than a return of contributions, then—

(i) the like transfer value shall be payable to the Ministry out of the superannuation fund to which the person, when in his former employment, was a contributor by the authority maintaining that fund as would have been payable under the transfer value regulations had the person become a contributory employee, less an amount equal to any sum which the trustees of that fund may become liable to pay by way of income tax in respect of the amount transferred by way of transfer value; and

(ii) the like particulars relating to the person's previous pensionable service shall be furnished to the Ministry and the person as would have been given to the person if instead of becoming an officer he had become a contributory employee.

(2) The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to any person unless within three months after entering the employment of the employing authority, or, if he entered their employment before the date of the coming into operation of these rules, within six months after that date, he—

(a) notifies the employing authority in writing that he desires these rules to apply to him;

(b) furnishes the employing authority with particulars in writing of any national service in which he has been engaged since he left his former employment;

(c) pays to the employing authority an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions other than voluntary contributions.

(3) Paragraph (1) of this rule shall not apply to any person who became an officer before the date of the coming into operation of these rules unless he ceased to hold his former employment not earlier than the fourth day of February, 1948, and the authority maintaining the fund to which he was a contributor consent.

(4) The transfer value payable in respect of a person who had been an established officer or servant within the meaning of the Act of 1909 shall be calculated as if paragraph (c) had been omitted from the definition of "service" in paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to the transfer value regulations.

(5) The age which shall be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the transfer value under this rule in respect of a person to whom paragraph (2) of rule 3 of these rules applies, being a person who, since leaving his former employment and before entering his new employment, has undergone a course of study or training, shall be his age at the date when he becomes employed as an officer, or, if he became an officer before the date of the coming into operation of these rules, his age at that date.

(6) The transfer value payable in respect of a person who ceased to hold his former employment more than twelve months before the date of the coming into operation of these rules shall be calculated by reference to his age at that date.

(7) Where a transfer value is payable in respect of a person who before becoming a contributory employee or local Act contributor had been subject to the Act of 1909 and the body by whom he was last employed while subject to the Act of 1909 would, if he had become entitled to a superannuation allowance on ceasing to be employed as such contributory employee or local Act contributor, have been liable to contribute to that allowance, that body or, if that body has been dissolved or has ceased to exercise functions as such, the appropriate authority in relation to that body shall pay to the authority maintaining the fund out of which the transfer value is payable a sum equal to the transfer value which that body or the appropriate authority aforesaid would have been liable to pay to the Secretary of State under paragraph (4) of regulation 52 of the National Health Service (Scotland) (Superannuation) Regulations, 1950(a), if that regulation had become applicable to the person on the date when he became an officer; and where that body would have had in respect of any such contribution to a superannuation allowance as aforesaid a right of contribution from any other body, that other body or, if that other body has been dissolved or has ceased to exercise functions as such, the appropriate authority in relation to that other body shall pay to the authority maintaining the superannuation fund aforesaid an amount equal to the transfer value which that other body or the appropriate authority in relation to that other body would have been liable to pay to the Secretary of State under paragraph (5) of the said regulation 52 if that regulation had become applicable to the person when he became an officer.

In this paragraph "appropriate authority" in relation to a body has the same meaning as in paragraph (15) of the said regulation 52.

Exercise by local authority of discretionary powers to increase benefits

5.—(1) In the case of any person to whom paragraph (1) of the last foregoing rule applies, the authority or body by whom the person was employed in his former employment may, within three months after the date on which they are informed by the Ministry that the person has given the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of the said rule, exercise in relation to him any discretion which, with a view to increasing the benefits payable to him, it would have been open to them to exercise at the time when he left their employment if he had then retired and had been entitled to a retirement pension under regulation 5 of the benefits regulations or (if that regulation was not applicable to him) to any corresponding benefit provided under the superannuation provisions which were applicable to him in his former employment.

(2) A decision made in the exercise of any discretion under the last foregoing paragraph shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions (if any) and to the right of appeal (if any) to which it would have been subject if the discretion had been exercised on the person's retirement in the circumstances aforesaid.

(3) Where a discretion has been exercised under paragraph (1) of this rule the service reckonable, immediately before he left his employment, by the person in whose favour the discretion has been exercised shall be deemed to have been correspondingly increased and the transfer value payable in respect of that person shall be calculated accordingly.

(4) Any increase in service, if attributable to a decision under this rule to increase the benefits payable to the person otherwise than by any notional increase or extension of the service reckonable for the purpose of calculating those benefits, or by treating any specified period of non-contributing service as contributing service, or, under a local Act scheme, by similarly converting service of one category to service of another category, shall be ascertained by converting a higher rate of benefit into years of contributing service or service for the purposes of the relevant local Act scheme in the manner in which fractions of remuneration are converted into years of contributing service under subsection (4) of section 2 of the Act of 1953.

(5) Where the amount of any transfer value payable under the last foregoing rule is increased in consequence of the exercise by an authority or body of any power conferred upon them by paragraph (1) of this rule, that authority or body shall repay the amount of the said increase to the superannuation fund out of which the transfer value is payable.

PART III

TRANSFER FROM NORTHERN IRELAND HEALTH SERVICE TO SCOTTISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Reckoning of previous service

6.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, where a person enters, or before the date of the coming into operation of these rules entered, employment by virtue of which he becomes, or became, a contributory employee or local Act contributor (in this Part of these rules referred to in relation to such a person as his "new employment") within the prescribed time limit after leaving employment in which he was an officer (in this Part of these rules referred to in relation to such a person as his "former employment"), and the authority maintaining the superannuation fund to which he becomes, or first became, a contributor receive from the Ministry a transfer value calculated in accordance with regulation 45 of the Health Services Regulations, the person shall be entitled—

(i) to reckon all service which in calculating the said transfer value is, or is treated as if it were, contributing service or non-contributing service, in the same manner and to the like extent as if it had been contributing service or non-contributing service within the meaning of the Act of 1937; and

(ii) to reckon for the purpose of determining whether any benefit is payable to or in respect of him as a contributory employee or local Act contributor any service which would have been reckonable for the purpose of determining whether any benefit was payable to or in respect of him under the Health Services Regulations.

(2) The foregoing paragraph shall not apply to any person unless within three months after entering his new employment, or, if he entered that employment before the date of the coming into operation of these rules, within six months after that date, he—

(a) gives notice in writing to the authority maintaining the superannuation fund to which he is, or, as the case may be, first became, a contributor that he desires these rules to apply to him;

(b) furnishes the said authority with particulars in writing of any national service in which he has been engaged since leaving his former employment;

(c) pays to the said authority an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of contributions, other than voluntary contributions, on or after his ceasing to hold his former employment.

(3) Paragraph (1) of this rule shall not apply to any person who became a contributory employee or local Act contributor before the date of the coming into operation of these rules unless he ceased to hold his former employment not earlier than the twenty-fourth day of June, 1948.

Continuation of payments made with a view to adding to, or enhancing the value of, previous service

7. If a person to whom paragraph (1) of the last foregoing rule applies—

(a) was, at the time when he left his former employment, in the course of making payments (other than those to which rule 8 applies) which were, or were deemed to be, payments under the Second Schedule to the Health Services Regulations, and

(b) on giving the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of the last foregoing rule, pays to the authority maintaining the superannuation fund to which he is a contributor in his new employment an amount equal to any sum which may have been returned to him in respect of the payments referred to in the foregoing sub-paragraph under regulation 18 of the Health Services Regulations on or after leaving his former employment, he shall be entitled, in continuation of those payments, to make payments, and in respect of the service in respect of which the payments were being made, shall enjoy rights and be subject to liabilities, as if in his former employment he had been, instead of an officer to whom the Health Services Regulations applied, a contributory employee.

8. If a person to whom paragraph (1) of rule 6 of these rules applies—

(a) was, at the time when he left his former employment, in the course of making payments in respect of added years, and

(b) on giving the notice referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of rule 6 of these rules, pays to the authority maintaining the superannuation fund to which he is a contributor in his new employment an amount equal to any sum paid to him by way of return of such payments as aforesaid on or after leaving his former employment, he shall be entitled to pay the outstanding payments to that authority in the manner in which they would have been payable if he had remained in his former employment and, in respect of the added years in respect of which those payments are made, shall enjoy rights and be subject to liabilities as if those years were added years reckonable in his new employment under regulation 12 of the benefits regulations, or, if in his new employment he is subject to a local Act scheme, under such provisions corresponding to the said regulation 12 or to regulation 5 of the Local Government Superannuation (Reckoning of Service on Transfer) (Scotland) Regulations, 1954(a), as are contained in that scheme.

Preservation of rights under regulation 32 of the Health Services Regulations

9. Where a person to whom paragraph (1) of rule 6 of these rules applies was in his former employment a person to whom sub-paragraph (b) of either paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of regulation 32 of the Health Services Regulations applied, or a person to whom paragraph (4) or (5) of that regulation applied, and is in his new employment a person to whom regulation 21 or 22 of the benefits regulations applies, then, notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (1) of rule 6 of these rules (but without prejudice to the application to him of that paragraph if he again enters employment by virtue of which he is a contributory employee or local Act contributor after leaving employment as an officer), the Acts of 1937 to 1953 or local Act scheme applicable to him in his new employment shall be modified so as to confer upon him rights corresponding to those conferred by the said sub-paragraph so long as he is such a person—

(a) without having had a break in employment of twelve months or more at any one time since leaving employment in which paragraph (1) of rule 6 of these rules last applied to him; and

(b) without having entered, since the date on which paragraph (1) of rule 6 of these rules last applied to him, employment in which he was an officer.

Reckoning of national service

10. Where, after leaving his former employment and before entering his new employment, a person to whom rule 6 of these rules has become applicable had been engaged in national service, the period of service which he becomes entitled to reckon under the said rule shall be treated as being increased to the extent (if any) to which the said period of national service would have been reckonable as service for the purposes of the Health Services Regulations, had the person again become an officer on the termination of such national service:

Provided that this rule shall not apply unless the transfer value received from the Ministry under rule 6 of these rules was calculated so as to include the liability of which the Ministry was relieved in respect of the said period of national service.

(a) S.I. 1954/1241 (1954 II, p. 1680).

PART IV
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Contributions not returnable to a person to whom rule 4 has become applicable

11. Notwithstanding anything in the Act of 1937 or any local Act scheme no payment shall be made thereunder by way of return of contributions, other than voluntary contributions, to any person to whom rule 4 of these rules has become applicable.

Computation of contributions of a person to whom rule 6 applies

12.—(1) Where a person to whom rule 6 of these rules applies ceases to be employed as a contributory employee or local Act contributor, or dies, in circumstances in which under the relevant superannuation provision there is payable to or in respect of him an amount by way of return of contributions (with or without interest) or a benefit which falls to be calculated by reference to any such amount, then, for the purpose of the relevant superannuation provision, the amount of his contributions shall be taken to include, in respect of service which, by virtue of these rules, has become reckonable as service for the purposes of the Act of 1937 or the relevant local Act scheme, an amount equal to the amount which would have been payable by way of return of contributions under the pension scheme applicable to him in his former employment, if, on his ceasing to hold that employment, he had been entitled to receive an amount by way of return of contributions without interest.

(2) Where under the relevant superannuation provision the amount payable by way of return of contributions or by way of benefit is a sum equal to, or which falls to be calculated by reference to, the amount of his contributions with compound interest thereon, compound interest shall also be payable in respect of the amount by which those contributions are increased under the last foregoing paragraph, calculated—

(i) as respects the period ending immediately before the day on which he became a contributory employee or local Act contributor, at the rate at which it would have been calculated under the pension scheme applicable to him in his former employment if on leaving that employment he had been entitled to a return of contributions together with compound interest thereon; and

(ii) as respects the period beginning with the date on which he became a contributory employee or local Act contributor, in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of the Act of 1937 or, as the case may be, the corresponding provisions of the relevant local Act scheme.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the previous provisions of this rule, the sum by which contributions payable under the relevant superannuation provision are increased under paragraph (1) or (2) of this rule shall not include—

(a) any sum in respect of contributions which, on or after the person's ceasing to be employed as an officer, were returned to and retained by him; or

(b) any amount in respect of voluntary contributions which, being payments to which rule 7 or rule 8 of these rules applied, have not been continued in pursuance of that rule.

Application of section 30 of the Act of 1937

13. The provisions of section 30 of the Act of 1937 shall have effect, in relation to a person who becomes a contributory employee in circumstances in which these rules apply, as if the reference in the said section to regulations made under that Act included a reference to these rules.

Modification of benefits and obligations in relation to the National Insurance Acts

14. Where any person to whom rule 6 of these rules has become applicable was in his former employment an insured person within the meaning of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland), 1946(a), then—

(a) if he was excepted from the operation of any provision (hereinafter called "the modification provision") of the Health Services Regulations modifying the benefits provided by the said regulations in relation to any such insured person as aforesaid, the provisions of any regulations made by the Secretary of State under subsection (4) of section 69 of the National Insurance Act, 1946(b), and the provisions of any other regulations or any scheme replacing wholly or in part the provisions of the regulations made under the said subsection (4), shall not apply to him; and

(b) if he was not so excepted—

(i) the provisions of any such regulations or scheme as aforesaid applicable to him in his new employment shall apply to him, as if any service which he becomes entitled to reckon under rules 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of these rules, being service of which account would have been taken under the modification provision for the purpose of reducing any benefit to which the person might have become entitled under the Health Services Regulations had he continued to be subject thereto, were service rendered on or after the fifth day of July, 1948; and

(ii) if the modification provision modified any benefit to which he might have become entitled under the Health Services Regulations by reference to a Table and to his age at a given date, the provisions of any such regulations or scheme as aforesaid applicable to him in his new employment shall have effect as if any provision therein modifying superannuation benefits by reference to a Table and the age of a person at a given date applies in his case, except that the reference to his age at that date shall be construed as a reference to his age at the date which was relevant for the purposes of the modification provision:

Provided that paragraph (b) (ii) of this rule shall not apply to any person unless the modification provision, or any corresponding provision modifying benefits provided by any pension scheme to which he was formerly subject in employment which was reckonable as service for the purposes of regulations made under subsection (1) of section 61 of the Act of 1948, applied to him on or before the fifth day of July, 1948.

Dated this 11th day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Section 2 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948, empowers the Secretary of State, and section 15 contains further enabling powers in that behalf, to make rules with respect to the pensions payable to and in respect of persons changing pensionable service under local government superannuation schemes for other pensionable employments specified in the rules, and vice versa.

These rules provide accordingly that—

(a) if a pensionable employee under a local government superannuation scheme transfers within a prescribed period (generally twelve months) to pensionable employment in the Northern Ireland Health Service, a transfer value of an appropriate amount shall be payable to the Northern Ireland Ministry of Health and Local Government out of the superannuation fund to which he was a contributor; and

(b) if a pensionable employee in the Northern Ireland Health Service transfers within the prescribed period to pensionable employment under a local government superannuation scheme, and the Northern Ireland Ministry of Health and Local Government pay an appropriate transfer value, the transferee is to be entitled to reckon his Northern Ireland service for the purposes of the local government superannuation scheme to which he has become subject.

In the case mentioned at (a) above, the Northern Ireland authorities have made the necessary provision for securing that the Scottish pensionable service will be reckonable for pension purposes under the Health Services (Superannuation) Regulations of Northern Ireland.

The rules are given limited retrospective operation under the authority of, and subject to the safeguards required by, section 2 (5) of the Act of 1948.
