shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations, 1948(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations"), and shall come into operation on the 12th June, 1957.

2. The following regulation shall be inserted in the principal regulations after regulation 16 thereof:—

"Special provision as to determination of regular occupation in relation to persons claiming an increase of benefit under section 14 of the Act

16A. Where a person who is or has been awarded disablement benefit in respect of a prescribed disease establishes that he has abandoned any occupation as a result of the relevant disease at any time after having been insured against the disease but before the date on which it is treated as having developed under regulation 6 of these regulations, then for the purpose of determining, in respect of any period commencing on or after the 12th June, 1957, his right to, or the rate of, an increase of that benefit under section 14 of the Act (which section relates to increase of disablement benefit in cases of special hardship), any occupation he has so abandoned may be treated as his regular occupation for the purposes of the said section 14 if it would have been so treated had the date of development as determined under the said regulation 6 fallen immediately before he so abandoned it."

Dated this 3rd day of June, 1957.

John Boyd-Carpenter,
Minister of Pensions and National Insurance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations, 1948, so that, subject to certain conditions, a person who has abandoned an occupation as a result of a prescribed disease before the date on which that disease is treated as having developed may nevertheless have that occupation treated as his regular occupation for the purposes of a claim to special hardship allowance under section 14 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946.

INSURED PERSONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

1957 No. 2180

The National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Amendment Regulations, 1957

Made - - - -	16*th December*, 1957
Laid before Parliament	20*th December*, 1957
Coming into Operation	6*th January*, 1958

The Industrial Injuries Joint Authority, with the consent of the Treasury, in exercise of powers conferred by Part III of the First Schedule to the

(a) S.I. 1948/1371 (Rev. XVI, p. 482: 1948 I, p. 3001).

National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation, interpretation and commencement

1. These regulations, which may be cited as the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Amendment Regulations, 1957, shall be read as one with the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Regulations, 1948(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal regulations"), and shall come into operation on the 6th January, 1958.

Amendment relating to certain employment of registration officers

2. For paragraph 1 of the second column of Part I of the Second Schedule to the principal regulations (which paragraph provides that certain employments requiring part-time service only as registrar of births and deaths and marriages shall not be included among the insurable employments) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"1. Any person in employment specified in paragraph 1 of Part I of this Schedule who is not wholly or mainly engaged in such employment or, if he is employed in more than one such employment or is also employed in any employment (not being under a contract of service) under a public or local authority constituted in Great Britain, is not wholly or mainly engaged in such employments in the aggregate."

Given under the official seal of the Industrial Injuries Joint Authority this 13th day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

(L.S.)

Ian G. Gilbert,
Secretary,
Industrial Injuries Joint Authority.

We consent.

Dated this 16th day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven.

Harwood Harrison,
Anthony Barber,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the provisions of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Insurable and Excepted Employments) Regulations, 1948, relating to employment as registrar of births and deaths and marriages by limiting the exception from insurable employment under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, 1946, to persons who are not wholly or mainly engaged in such employment.
