1957 No. 730

The National Health Service (Remuneration and Conditions of Service) Amendment No. 2 Regulations, 1957

Made - - - -	25th April, 1957
Laid before Parliament	30th April, 1957
Coming into Operation	1st May, 1957

The Minister of Health, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by Section 66 of the National Health Service Act, 1946(a) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the National Health Service (Remuneration and Conditions of Service) Amendment No. 2 Regulations, 1957, and shall come into operation on the first day of May, 1957.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the National Health Service (Remuneration and Conditions of Service) Regulations, 1951(c), the remuneration of any medical officer of a Regional Hospital Board or Board of Governors of a teaching hospital who belongs to a class of officers set out in column A of the schedule hereto, shall, as respects service performed on or after the first day of May, 1957, be calculated in accordance with the rates set out in column B opposite and shall be neither more nor less than the remuneration so calculated, whether or not it is paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Provided that nothing in these regulations shall prevent the payment to a consultant of a special distinction award, or to an officer of fees for domiciliary consultations, in addition to the remuneration so prescribed.

(2) The conditions with respect to remuneration, and in the case of officers covered by items 2 or 3 of the schedule hereto the method of calculating remuneration on the basis of notional half-days, applicable to rates of remuneration payable in pursuance of the said regulations shall be applicable to remuneration payable under these regulations.

(3) The Minister of Health may, if he thinks fit, authorise a Board or Hospital Management Committee to vary the remuneration prescribed by these regulations in the case of an individual officer or officers of a particular description.
