(3) operations in connection with the warehousing or storing of any of the articles specified in (1) above for the purpose of the sale thereof by retail, or otherwise in connection with such sale, where the warehousing or storing takes place at a warehouse or store carried on in conjunction with one or more shops or other places where the said articles are sold by retail;

(4) operations in connection with the transport of any of the articles specified in (1) above when carried on in conjunction with their sale by retail or with the warehousing or storing operations specified in (3) above; and

(5) clerical or other office work carried on in conjunction with the sale by retail of any of the articles specified in (1) above and relating to such sale or to any of the operations specified in (2) to (4) above.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from the 17th June, 1957, sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable and the holidays to be allowed to workers in substitution for the statutory minimum remuneration and holidays set out in the Retail Bookselling and Stationery Trades Wages Council (Great Britain) Wages Regulation Order, 1956 (Order R.B.C. (18)), which is revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.

1957 No. 774

The Wages Regulation (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery) (England and Wales) (Amendment) Order, 1957

Made - - - -	2nd May, 1957
Coming into Operation	27th May, 1957

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (England and Wales) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery) (England and Wales) (Amendment) Order, 1957.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 27th day of May, 1957, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) 8 & 9 Geo. 6. c. 17. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1956(a), shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 2nd day of May, 1957.

H. C. Emmerson,
Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.

3. in paragraph 24 (which relates to definitions)—

(1) for the definitions of "First Assistant" and "Manager", "Manageress" there were substituted the following definitions:—

"'FIRST ASSISTANT' means—

(a) in a shop where a manager or manageress and not less than five other workers (excluding part-time workers employed as cleaners) are employed, such one of those other workers as may be designated by the employer as 'first assistant' for the purposes of this Schedule or, if no worker is so designated, the worker who has been longest employed in the shop;

(b) in a shop where no manager or manageress is employed—

(i) where two or more workers (excluding part-time workers employed as cleaners) are employed, such one of those workers as may be designated by the employer as 'first assistant' for the purposes of this Schedule or, if no worker is so designated, the worker who has been longest employed in the shop;

(ii) where only one worker is employed, that worker;

provided that a worker shall not be deemed to be a first assistant by virtue of (b) of this definition, except during a period when the employer is absent from the shop and the period of absence is of not less than one day's duration."

"'MANAGER', 'MANAGERESS' means a worker who is employed at, and is normally immediately in charge of the operation of, a shop and who has immediate control of—

(a) one or more other workers being full-time workers, or

(b) two or more part-time workers (excluding part-time workers employed as cleaners);

and for the purpose of this definition a worker shall not be deemed not to be immediately in charge of the operation of a shop by reason only of being subject to the supervision of the employer or some person acting on his behalf, being in either case a person who is not normally, during the hours when the shop is open to the public, wholly or mainly engaged in work at the shop."

(2) after the definition of "carrying capacity" there were inserted the following definition:—

"'CLEANER' means a worker engaged wholly or mainly in cleaning premises."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from 27th May, 1957, amends the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation Order, 1954 (Order B.F.C. (2)), as amended by the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (England and Wales) Wages Regulation (Amendment) Order, 1956 (Order B.F.C. (4)), by increasing the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by those Orders. The Order also repeats without alteration certain definitions which were contained in Order B.F.C. (4).

Order B.F.C. (4) is revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.

1957 No. 824

The Wages Regulation (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery) (Scotland) Order, 1957

Made - - - -	13*th May*, 1957
Coming into Operation	3*rd June*, 1957

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery Trade Wages Council (Scotland) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Retail Bread and Flour Confectionery) (Scotland) Order, 1957.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 3rd day of June, 1957, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) 8 & 9 Geo. 6. c. 17. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
