GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

12.—(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in respect of any week the total remuneration (including holiday remuneration but excluding any amount payable in respect of overtime for work on a weekly short day and any additional payment for work on a Sunday) payable to a full-time worker (as defined in paragraph 22) under those other provisions is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration with the addition of any amount and any additional payment excluded as aforesaid.

(2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of any week to a full-time worker is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 2 or paragraph 3 of this Schedule for 48 hours' work in his normal occupation, or for 44 hours' such work in the case of a worker under 16 years of age :

Provided that—

(i) where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 48 hours in the week or for less than

44 hours in the case of a worker under 16 years of age, by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed his employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 13 of this Schedule) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies;

(ii) where in any week the worker at his request and with the written consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a holiday allowed under Part II of this Schedule or a customary holiday or a holiday allowed to all persons employed in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.

(3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday or during which he is absent from work in accordance with proviso (ii) to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph) is

(a) capable of and available for work; and

(b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid:

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 12 of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration specified in paragraph 2 and paragraph 3 of this Schedule relates, in the case of a worker aged 16 years or over, to a week of 48 hours exclusive of overtime and, in the case of a worker aged under 16 years, to a week of 44 hours exclusive of overtime, and is subject to a proportionate reduction according as the number of hours worked is less than 48 or 44, as the case may be.

(2) In calculating the remuneration for the purpose of this Schedule recognised breaks for meal-times shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 hereof (which relates to waiting time) be excluded.

PART II

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

ANNUAL HOLIDAY

14.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, an employer shall between the date on which this Schedule becomes effective and the 31st day of October, 1958, and in each succeeding year between the 1st day of April and the 31st day of October allow a holiday (hereafter in this Schedule referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker (other than a street newsvendor) in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who has been employed by him during the twelve months immediately preceding the first day of April in that year for any one of the periods of employment (calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 21 of this Schedule) set out in the first column of the table below, and the duration of the annual holiday shall in the case of each such worker be related to that period as follows:—

Period of employment	Duration of Annual Holiday where the worker's normal working week is—
	6 days	5 days or less
12 months	12 days	10 days
Not less than 11 but less than 12 months	11 „	9 „
„ „ „ 10 „ „ „ 11 „	10 „	8 „
„ „ „ 9 „ „ „ 10 „	9 „	7 „
„ „ „ 8 „ „ „ 9 „	8 „	7 „
„ „ „ 7 „ „ „ 8 „	7 „	6 „
„ „ „ 6 „ „ „ 7 „	6 „	5 „
„ „ „ 5 „ „ „ 6 „	5 „	4 „
„ „ „ 4 „ „ „ 5 „	4 „	3 „
„ „ „ 3 „ „ „ 4 „	3 „	2 „
„ „ „ 2 „ „ „ 3 „	2 „	2 „
„ „ „ 1 „ „ „ 2 „	1 day	1 day

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last foregoing sub-paragraph:—

(a) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any holiday season shall not exceed in the aggregate twice the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;

(b) where a worker does not wish to take his annual holiday or part thereof during the holiday season in any year and, before the expiration of such holiday season, enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed at a date or dates to be specified in that agreement, after the expiration of the holiday season but before the commencement of the next following holiday season, then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season;

(c) where a worker has, on the 1st day of August in any year, been in the employment of the employer for not less than six months, the duration of his annual holiday in that year shall be not less than the number of days constituting his normal working week;

(d) the duration of the worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on the 31st day of October, 1958, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order R.N.T. (20) between the 1st day of April, 1958 and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.

(3) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to the year 1958 the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 1958 and ending on the 31st day of October, 1958 and in each succeeding year, the period commencing on the 1st day of April and ending on the 31st day of October of the same year.

15. Where at any time between the 1st day of January in any year and the commencement of the holiday season in the same year an employer, at the written request of a worker, allows to the worker any day or days of holiday (other than customary holidays or holidays in lieu of customary holidays) and pays him for the day or days so allowed an amount not less than the remuneration to which he would be entitled if each such day were a day of annual holiday allowed in the holiday season, then the duration of the annual holiday to be allowed to the worker under this Schedule in the holiday season in that year shall be reduced by the number of days of holiday so allowed before the commencement of the holiday season:

Provided that the annual holiday to be allowed to a worker in any one holiday season shall not be reduced in pursuance of this provision by more than six days.

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer.

(2) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds the number of days constituting his normal working week, the holiday may be allowed in three periods of consecutive working days; so, however, that when a holiday is so allowed, one of the periods shall consist of a number of such days not less than the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, days of annual holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer, or a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday, or a day on which he does not normally work for the employer intervenes.

(4) Where a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer or a holiday in lieu of a customary holiday immediately precedes a period of annual holiday or occurs during such a period and the total number of days of annual holiday required to be allowed in the period under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, together with any customary holiday or holiday in lieu of a customary holiday exceeds the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the duration of that period of annual holiday may be reduced by one day and in such a case one day of annual holiday may be allowed on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer (not being the worker's weekly short day) in the holiday season or after the holiday season in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (2) (b) of paragraph 14 of this Schedule.

(5) A day of annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday or to a half-holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act, 1945:

Provided that where the total number of days of annual holiday allowed to a worker under this Schedule is less than the number of days in his normal working week, the said annual holiday shall be in addition to the said day of holiday or the said half-holiday.

17. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 19 of this Schedule, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer, on the last pay day preceding such holiday, one day's holiday pay (as defined in paragraph 22 of this Schedule) in respect of each day thereof.

(2) Where an annual holiday is taken in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

19. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker (in accordance with paragraph 20 of this Schedule or with Order R.N.T. (20)) in respect of employment during any of the periods referred to in that paragraph or that Order, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of any annual holiday for which the worker has qualified by reason of employment during the said period shall be reduced by the amount of the said accrued holiday remuneration unless that remuneration has been deducted from a previous payment of holiday remuneration made under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.N.T. (20).

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

20. Where a worker (other than a street newsvendor) ceases to be employed after the provisions of this Schedule become effective, the employer shall, immediately on the termination of the employment (hereafter in this Schedule referred to as the "termination date"), pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

(1) in respect of employment occurring in the twelve months up to the 1st day of April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration for any days of annual holiday for which he has qualified except days of annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and

(2) in respect of any employment since the 1st day of April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it:

Provided that—

(a) no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if he is dismissed on the grounds of misconduct and is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal;

(b) where, during the period or periods in respect of which the said accrued holiday remuneration is payable, the worker—

(i) has at his written request been allowed any day or days of holiday (other than days of holiday allowed by the employer under paragraph 15 of this Schedule) for which he had not qualified under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.N.T. (20), any accrued holiday remuneration payable as aforesaid may be reduced by the amount of any sum paid by the employer to the worker in respect of such day or days of holiday; or

(ii) has been allowed an annual holiday under (c) of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 14 of this Schedule or of Order R.N.T. (20), any accrued holiday remuneration payable as aforesaid may be reduced by one day's holiday pay in respect of each day by which the said holiday exceeded the number of days of annual holiday to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of the said paragraph 14;

(c) where a worker is employed under a contract of service under which he is required to give not less than one week's notice before terminating his employment and the worker without the consent of his employer terminates his employment without having given not less than one week's notice or before one week has expired from the beginning of such notice, the amount of accrued holiday remuneration payable to the worker shall be the amount payable under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph less an amount equal to the statutory minimum remuneration which would be payable to him at the termination date for one week's work if working his normal working week and the normal number of daily hours worked by him.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

21. For the purpose of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration, the worker shall be treated as if he were employed for a month in respect of any month throughout which he has been in the employment of the employer.

PART III

GENERAL

DEFINITIONS

22. For the purposes of this Schedule—

"CARRYING CAPACITY" means the weight of the maximum load normally carried by the vehicle, and such carrying capacity when so established shall not be affected either by variations in the weight of the load resulting from collections or deliveries or emptying of containers during the course of the journey, or by the fact that on any particular journey a load greater or less than the established carrying capacity is carried.

"CLEANER" means, in paragraph 2 of this Schedule, a worker engaged wholly or mainly in cleaning premises.
