EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends Article 22 of the Isles of Scilly (Sale of Intoxicating Liquor) Order, 1951, which modifies and adapts certain enactments in their application to the Isles of Scilly.

The amendment made by the present Order applies these modifications to section 19 of the Betting and Gaming Act, 1960, which, as enacted, permits the playing of dominoes and cribbage for money or money's worth on premises in respect of which a justices' on-licence is in force. The section, as modified in its application to the Isles of Scilly, permits the playing of these games on premises in respect of which there is in force a permit, granted by the Joint Police Committee for the Isles of Scilly, for the consumption of intoxicating liquor on the premises; the power to impose requirements or restrictions on the playing of those games on any part of the premises to which the public has access being exercisable by that Committee and not by the licensing justices.
