Made - - - - 20*th December* 1967

Coming into Operation 1*st January* 1968

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section 9(2) of the Civil Defence Act 1948(a) it is enacted that the expression "the designated Minister" in that Act means such Minister as may be designated by Order in Council and that different Ministers may be designated for different purposes or different provisions of the Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) Without prejudice to the functions from time to time exercisable by the Secretary of State, by virtue of the Civil Defence Act 1948 or otherwise, in relation to the Civil Defence Corps, the Secretary of State is designated Minister for the payment of grants under section 3 of the said Act towards expenses incurred in or in connection with the training of the said Corps.

(2) In this Article the expression "Civil Defence Corps" means the Corps established by and under the Warrant of the Secretary of State intituled the Civil Defence Corps Warrant 1949 and any subsequent Warrants of the Secretary of State amending it and from time to time in force.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Civil Defence (Designation of the Secretary of State) Order 1967 and shall come into operation on 1st January 1968.

(2) This Order shall not apply to Scotland.

W. G. Agnew.
