(c) Where there is no candidate for a bursary to be awarded under this scheme who, in the opinion of the Senatus, is qualified to hold the bursary or where a candidate to whom such a bursary has been awarded does not begin the course for which the bursary was awarded or where a bursary is withdrawn from the holder, it shall be in the power of the Court to pay into the Lapsed Bursaries Fund from the endowment from which the bursary would have been paid the whole or part of the sum thus released.

7.—(1) Where the Court have after the date of publication of the draft of this scheme but before the date of this scheme accepted a gift or bequest of an endowment for bursaries, or where after the date of this scheme they accept such a gift or bequest, it shall be in their power to resolve that the endowment (in this paragraph referred to as the "additional endowment") shall be held and administered under the provisions of this scheme relating to bursaries of the type provided for in the governing instrument of the additional endowment, provided that such a resolution is not inconsistent with any provision of the governing instrument of the additional endowment. The resolution may provide for the additional endowment to continue to be held as a separate fund or for its amalgamation with an appropriate endowment to which this scheme relates.

(2) Where the resolution provides for amalgamation the endowments concerned shall on the adoption of the resolution be amalgamated, and the name of the amalgamated endowment shall so far as appropriate incorporate the names of the endowments included in the amalgamation.

(3) Where an additional endowment is the subject of a resolution adopted under this paragraph the investments and any uninvested moneys representing the capital of the additional endowment shall be valued and be transferred to the St. Andrews University Bursaries Combined Investment Fund in exchange for shares of the Combined Investment Fund.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the additional endowment shall be held and administered in accordance with the provisions of its governing instrument and with the relevant provisions of this scheme.

Powers of investment

8. In regard to the investment of the funds continued by this scheme or of additional endowments received in terms of paragraph 7, the Court shall have all powers competent to them under the common law of Scotland as a body corporate.

Valuation of property

9.—(1) Where property is being transferred to the St. Andrews University Bursaries Combined Investment Fund or shares in the said fund are being allotted or cancelled, estimates or values for the purposes of such transactions shall be made on the following bases:—

(a) securities quoted on a recognised Stock Exchange in the United Kingdom the middle price of transactions quoted on the day before the transaction takes place (in this paragraph referred to as "the relevant day"), or if the Stock Exchanges are not open on the relevant day, the corresponding price on the last day before the relevant day on which the Exchanges were open, or if no transactions take place on the said last day on the nearest day before the relevant day on which transactions take place;

(b) heritable property or securities not quoted on a recognised Stock Exchange in the United Kingdom, the price which would in the opinion of a valuator or an accountant, as the case may be, selected by the Court have been paid by a willing buyer to a willing seller on the relevant day; and

(2) Where the value of the St. Andrews University Bursaries Combined Investment Fund or of an endowment being transferred to the said fund includes a fraction of £1 the said fraction shall be ignored if it is less than 50p and shall be reckoned as £1 if it is 50p or more.

Application of income

10. The Court shall in each financial year pay from the income of the funds continued under this scheme the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the funds and thereafter apply, as nearly as possible, the whole of the free income in paying the endowments to which this scheme relates.

Disposal of unappropriated income

11.—(1) If at the end of any financial year there is in any endowment a balance of income which has not been appropriated to the purposes of that endowment, it shall be in the power of the Court—

(a) to carry the said balance or part thereof forward to form part of the revenue of the endowment in the following financial year, or

(2) Where bursaries are conjoined under the last foregoing subparagraph the Court shall amalgamate the endowments from which the said bursaries have been paid. Where the payment of a bursary which has been conjoined is not the sole purpose of an endowment the last foregoing sentence shall be construed as though for the reference to the endowment from which the bursary has been paid there were substituted a reference to so much of the capital of the said endowment as is necessary to provide the income from which the said bursary has been paid. The name of each amalgamated endowment shall so far as appropriate include the names of the endowments included in the amalgamation.

Method of award of bursaries

13.—(1) The Senatus shall, before the end of each academic year, invite applications for the bursaries named and described in the second and third schedules, with periods of tenure beginning in the next following academic year. (b) The Court shall, after consultation with the Senatus, appoint examiners and prescribe their duties. The Court shall determine the remuneration of the examiners.

(4) The Senatus shall, subject to the provisions of this scheme, award the bursaries referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph: provided, however, that if in the opinion of the Senatus there is in any year no candidate of sufficient attainment to merit the award of any bursary, that bursary shall not be awarded in that year.

(5) In awarding any bursary the Senatus may take into account the financial need as well as the academic merit of the candidates.

Payment of bursaries

14. It shall be in the power of the Court to pay the bursaries to which this scheme relates in such instalments, at such periods and subject to such conditions not being inconsistent with this scheme as may be prescribed by the Court.

Limitation of value of awards

15.—(1) The amount of any award under this scheme to a person who holds, or is to hold, a bursary or other allowance which is paid out of moneys provided by Parliament or out of any fund aided by grants from Parliament shall not be such as may cause the said bursary or other allowance to be reduced.

(2) The holder of any award or awards governed by this scheme shall, if required by the Senatus, furnish a statement of all other awards he holds. The Senatus shall have the right to adjust the value of any award made under this scheme to ensure that the combined annual value of all awards held by him shall not exceed such sum as the Senatus shall determine.

Withdrawal of bursaries

16. The Senatus shall require the holders of bursaries awarded under this scheme to satisfy the Senatus that they are making reasonable progress in their respective courses of study.
