EDUCATION, SCOTLAND

The Education (Grants for In-service Training of Teachers) (Scotland) Regulations 1984

Made - - - -	24*th May* 1984
Laid before Parliament	11*th June* 1984
Coming into Operation	2*nd July* 1984

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections 73(a) and 74(1) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980(a), and all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Education (Grants for In-service Training of Teachers) (Scotland) Regulations 1984 and shall come into operation on 2nd July 1984.

Grants by the Secretary of State

2. The Secretary of State may, subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay to education authorities grants of such amount as he thinks necessary or expedient in respect of teachers in their employment undergoing in-service training.

Training in respect of which grants may be paid

3. A grant shall be paid only in respect of a teacher attending a course within a subject area listed in the Schedule to these regulations.

Applications for and payment of grants

4.—(1) Applications for grants shall be made in writing to the Secretary of State by education authorities and the Secretary of State shall in any year advise education authorities by circular of the procedure for making applications and the last day by which applications must be received by him.

(a) 1980 c. 44.

(2) Payment of grants shall be made to education authorities by two instalments paid half-yearly in arrears. Provided, however, that if any teacher in respect of whom a grant has been approved fails to complete the course the Secretary of State may revoke the grant and recover from the education authority the whole or such part as he considers appropriate of such grant.

George Younger,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

New St Andrew's House,
Edinburgh.
24th May 1984.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

Under section 73 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980 the Secretary of State may in accordance with regulations made by him make payment of such sums as he thinks necessary and expedient for various purposes. Section 74(1) of the Act enables the Secretary of State to prescribe in regulations conditions with which the recipients of grant are required to comply. These regulations provide for the payment to education authorities of grants in respect of teachers undergoing in-service training in the subject areas listed in the Schedule to the regulations. Applications for grants require to be made in writing and provision is made for revocation of grant and recovery of any payment already made should a teacher fail to complete a course.
